JOB FACT SHEET

1 Introduction See Page 4 in Guidebook

The collection of accurate, complete, up-to-date and gender neutral job information is essential to, and forms the basis of the job evaluation process.

This job fact sheet provides a format and serves as a questionnaire designed to describe a job, to capture the skill, effort and responsibility normally required in the work, and to record the conditions under which it is usually carried out. The job fact sheet focuses on CURRENT job content and requirements. THIS IS NOT AN APPRAISAL OF YOUR PERFORMANCE ON THE JOB.

Please read the job fact sheet carefully, and complete each section. Throughout the job fact sheet examples are requested and are important as you describe the job. Attach additional pages if necessary.

Your immediate out of scope supervisor or assigned job fact sheet reviewer (where appropriate) will review your completed job fact sheet. Feel free to keep a copy of the job fact sheet. Please complete the signature Section (17) on page 21.

Any changes, as mutually agreed with your supervisor/job fact reviewer are to be recorded in the specific job fact sheet section and initialed by both parties. Additional job holder comments can be recorded in Section (16) on page 21. Additional supervisor/reviewer comments can be recorded in Section (18) on page 22.

8 Independent Judgement See Page 20 in Guidebook

All jobs require some independent action, but to varying degrees. Some jobs are highly structured and have many formal procedures, while others require judgements or actions that have no precedents to serve as a guide.

Consider the type and level of guidance provided to this job. Guidance can come from rules, instructions, established procedures, defined methods, manuals, policies, professional standards, precedents, leadership from others and direct supervision.

(a) To what extent does this job control its own work as opposed to being guided by influences such as rules, procedures, policies, supervisory presence or instructions directing actions required. Please check the answer that most closely represents expected job requirements.

- Most job requirements (to the extent possible) are set out within structure and rules and/or readily understood schedules to guide job tasks/duties required.
- Some restrictions apply, but the control over setting work priorities and pace of work is contained within the job.
- There are minimal restrictions, leaving significant control over the work being carried out within the scope of the job.
- Other (please explain).

(b) To what extent does this job exercise judgement to determine how the work is to be done? Please check the answer that most closely represents expected job requirements.

- Work is mostly repetitive and predictable with little need for judgement.
Example: _____
- Work may present some unusual circumstances that require judgement or choices to be made.
Example: Deal with linen supply and shortage accordingly.

- Work presents difficult choices or unique situations that require judgement.
Example: _____
- Other (please explain).
