

Job Evaluation Rating Documentation

	Job Title Information Technology Educator Date _____ Revised Date 2004 Revised Date Mar 21/12	Code 330
---	---	-------------------------------

Decision Making Within limits of accepted practice, makes some choices about Information Technology education program delivery when developing curriculum for new software or systems. Develops plans to achieve short term goals and objectives to achieve desired learner outcomes.	Degree 3.5
Education Grade 12. Computer Systems Technology diploma (2218 hours).	4.5
Experience Thirty-six (36) months previous experience in a highly integrated network environment and in adult education. Twelve (12) months on the job to become familiar with region information systems, applications, operations, service program development, delivery, and evaluation including vendor-specific training and to become familiar with region/facility/department policies and procedures.	7.0
Independent Judgement Plans, develops, evaluates and delivers Information Technology educational programs. Work involves a choice of methods or procedures, identified through surveys and analysis, to prepare recommendations for user training requirements. Carries out computer education and instruction within generally accepted practices of the region/facility/department.	4.0
Working Relationships Provides Information Technology training, technical explanation and instruction using adult learning principles. Motivates staff to participate in education programs by seeking their input through user surveys and analysis to develop curriculum.	4.0

Impact of Action	Degree
Coordinates resources to develop and plan Information Technology education programs that impact the organization and individual employees to a limited degree. May result in delays in program delivery due to insufficient research and planning.	2.0
Leadership and/or Supervision Provides functional guidance to staff through the delivery of Information Technology training programs. Consults and provides functional guidance and advice to managers on Information Technology training.	2.5
Physical Demands Regular physical effort such as standing, and carrying files, books, binders, projectors and computer equipment, with frequent accurate coordination of fine movements when keyboarding.	2.5
Sensory Demands Regular sensory effort, preparing and presenting training materials, and using computers.	2.0
Environment Occasional exposure to minor conditions such as interruptions, competing multiple demands and some travel.	2.0